OLD BUSINESS

The Tree Lighting event went well. Next year the schools, GECC, Chamber of Commerce have expressed an interest in having more activities on that day leading up to the tree lighting.

NEW BUSINESS

Programs –

- Youth Basketball – games and K-1 on Saturday, January 10th. There are more kids registered this year than last.
- Ski Sundown After School Ski Program – this program starts this Friday, January 9th. Numbers are down from last year.
- Mount Snow trip – currently no one is registered for this trip.
- UCONN Girls Basketball Bus Trip – Had a few unsold seats – Tom said it was a good trip.
- After School Programs – legos (k-2 & 3-6)
- Adult Language Classes – these programs are ½ full.
- Work on the Bathhouse began last week. It is being re-sided to match the new building and band shell. The brick will also be repainted but a color has not been decided on.
- Tom is still working on the budget. Wants to put the bathhouse renovations in the budget.
- Electric Golf Cart for concessions – Tom is still contemplating this possibility.
- Upcoming Trips – Yankees/Red Sox Game, Boston Flower Show, Red Sox Games, NYC – On your Own (dates to be announced)

Upcoming Events –

- Saturday, March 7th will be the Green Eggs & Ham Breakfast that is put on by the Granby Early Childhood Council (GECC) and Granby Recreation.

- Saturday, February 21, 2015 4:45pm – 7pm - Annual Granby Ice Skating Party at Simsbury Farms in Simsbury. Tom asked for volunteers to help that night. Sue Yucha said she would help.
